Volunteer Guides

Since 1986, the Guides twice weekly walks and associated activities have been instrumental in promoting public enjoyment of the Gardens. The Friends support these members with training opportunities, equipment, conference registrations etc

Promotion and Professional Development

The Friends continue to promote The Geelong Botanic Gardens and Eastern Park with subscriptions to Geelong and Bellarine Tourism and Geelong What's On, the website, Facebook, Instagram etc

The Friends also regularly provide support for members and Volunteers to attend workshops, seminars, conferences, network meetings etc.

Volunteers in the Gardens read more *Volunteers*

Friends have many active volunteer roles in the Geelong Botanic Gardens:

- Perennial Border - members have actively worked in the Gardens since the late 1980s when the Friends and staff established this significant section of the Gardens. This area is still maintained and financially supported by the Friends
- Heritage Rose Garden – these garden beds are also maintained by the Friends (members who also belong to the Western District branch of Heritage Roses) and this garden is financially supported by the Friends.
- Silver Border -To celebrate the Silver Anniversary of the Friends in 2010, the Gardens Staff and Friends established these stunning garden beds near the Conservatory, financially supported by the Friends. The Perennial Border volunteers continue to help to maintain this Border.
- GBG Reference Library–Friends volunteer to coordinate this library and other reference collections which are held at the Gardens.

Tea House read more *Tea House*

The Friends' Tea House opened in 1992 with the Friends providing $17,000 towards building and establishing it. A further $22,000 is estimated to have been provided by the Friends for equipment and improvements. The Friends employed staff to manage the Tea House until January 2012, with volunteers providing more than 60,000 volunteer hours. The Friends provided all equipment for the Tea House during its management.

Friends' Nursery

The Friends established a Nursery in 1993, with $2,100 for the initial equipment and fitout. Members volunteer each week to raise plants, largely sourced from the Gardens, for sale to the public. Nursery sales are a core part of the Friends' business. The Friends provided $5,600 for a permanent shelter in 2000 and $9,000 in 2014 for the display tables in the Nursery. A further contribution of $1,218 has provided six more display tables for the Nursery in 2017. Over 5,000 volunteer hours are involved every year to operate this Nursery.

Music in the Gardens     read more Music in the Gardens

Beginning on a small scale in 2000, this very popular Summer Music event brought thousands of people into the Gardens over 15 years. The last 'Music in the Gardens' was held in 2014, involving more than 1,000 volunteer hours and 150 Gardens Staff hours.

Geelong School of Botanical Art     read more Botanical Art

This School was established in 2003 and the Friends took over the management in 2007. Classes are conducted during school term, workshops are usually conducted in school holidays and a Biennial Exhibition is held.

The Friends have managed these exhibitions:

2009	Inspired by Nature 1 , The Gordon Gallery,
2011	Inspired by Nature 2 , The Gordon Gallery
2013	Inspired by Nature 3 , art@wintergarden
2015	Inspired by Nature 4 , art@wintergarden

Inspired by Nature 5 is planned to open at the Wintergarden in October 2017

Events, Tours and other activities

The Friends provide an annual program for members and the public – bus tours, speaker evenings, open gardens and many more activities to interest the wide membership. The quarterly newsletter Jubaea is published by the Friends.

Financial Support for Gardens Staff and Support for Submissions to the City for Budget Considerations and Capital Bids

The Friends have also been generous in their support of the GBG staff with extensive contributions since 1997 to enable staff members to attend professional development and conferences, including international venues. It is estimated that $5,500 was provided in the period 1997 – 2004.

The Friends funded the keynote speaker at the International Pelargonium and Geranium Conference in Geelong, 2006.

The Friends have also, on many occasions, given support for applications (involving the Geelong Botanic Gardens and Eastern Park) which have been submitted to CoGG for consideration in the Budget or Capital Bid processes.

Some recent examples are:

- Restoration of the Walter Conservatory, due to reopen in 2017
- Restoration of the Ladies Kiosk, reopened in 2017
- Development of the Sustainable Visitor Facilities
